

1. The Olive Festival

WORKSHEET #2

Task 1: Comprehension – True or False

1. The Fiesta de la Aceituna started in the 19th century. (False)
2. “Hoyo” is a traditional olive snack. (True)
3. The festival is only for local residents. (False)
4. Martos is known as the Olive Oil Capital of the World. (True)

Task 2: Vocabulary – Match the Word with the Definition

1. Molienda → a) Olive pressing
2. Tribute → b) A way to honor or show respect
3. Heritage → c) Traditions or cultural inheritance
4. Recognized → d) Widely known and acknowledged

Task 3: Speaking – Comparison

Compare the Fiesta de la Aceituna with a festival in your country. Discuss in pairs:

- What are the main activities?
- How does it reflect local identity?

- Would you recommend it to a visitor?

Task 4: Writing – Short Promotional Text

Imagine you are creating a brochure for international visitors. Write a 5–6 sentence paragraph introducing the Fiesta de la Aceituna, highlighting activities, traditions, and why it is worth visiting.

Task 5: Creative Design

Design a flyer or mini-poster digitally or on paper. Include:

- A catchy title
- One or two visuals (photos or drawings)
- 2–3 key activities
- Your group slogan